MARG STUBINGTON MUSIC DIRECTOR / DIRECTRICE DE MUSIQUE

2009-2010 Subscription Series

The Canadian Centennial Choir is proud to announce its forty-second concert season, under the direction of newly-appointed Music Director, Marg Stubington. Ms. Stubington brings her years of conducting experience and joy in music-making to the Centennial Choir's podium.

We welcome the holiday season with Christmas Dances and Lullabies, an evening of Irish carols, Renaissance Christmas motets, and the fabulous Carols and Lullabies: Christmas in the Southwest for choir, harp, guitar and marimba by American composer Conrad Susa.

In The Music of Eleanor Daley, the choir proudly celebrates its ongoing relationship with one of Canada's great choral composers. Enjoy the tender beauty of the Requiem for unaccompanied choir with soprano and baritone soloists, along with the soulful energy of some of Ms. Daley's smaller works. That energy continues with a set of African-American spirituals arranged by Moses Hogan, Andre Thomas and others.

English choral composers are the focus of our third concert of the season. Rule Britannia will feature Benjamin Britten's Five Flower Songs; gorgeous works for choir, oboe and organ by John Rutter including The Lord Is My Shepherd and Te Deum; and a treasure trove of selections by Finzi, Vaughan Williams, and Pearsall.
